

PhD Day 2024

Friday 19 January – all day followed by an evening party

Dear PhD students and supervisors,

The annual PhD Day takes place on Friday 19 January 2024.

The PhD Day will contain exciting talk from an excellent speaker, pitch- and flash talks, oral presentations, the Fogh Nielsen Prize competition, the JCD Prize, 3R prize, and the well renowned dinner party at Turbinehallerne, Aarhus C.

As the PhD Day is the annual meeting point for all PhD students, everyone is expected to participate:

- First year PhD students and Research year students are invited to submit an abstract and present a 2.5 minute pitch.
- Second year PhD students are requested to submit an abstract and present a 4 minute flash talk.
- Third year PhD students are requested to submit an abstract. Students will be selected for either a 10 minute oral presentation or as co-chair on a presentation session mixed with pitch, flash talk and oral presentations.

All supervisors are invited to participate in the PhD Day, and to contribute as chair on a presentation session mixed with pitch, flash talk and oral presentations.

On 17 and 18 January 2024, the PhD workshop "Fill Up Your Toolbox for Future Commercial Research Collaborations" will be held. In interdisciplinary teams, participants will co-create a solution to a real-life case from a health care company and pitch the solution at PhD Day. This pitch count as your registration for PhD-Day and substitutes your abstract submission.

The online submission of abstracts will be open on 15 September 2023, and the deadline for submission of abstracts is 1 November 2023. See our website: PhD Day 2024 \(au.dk\)

Once you have submitted your abstract, you are automatically signed up for participation in the PhD Day. The PhD Day is a mandatory part of the PhD programme at Health. All PhD students must participate in PhD Day at least twice during their enrolment period.

The Organizing Committee is looking forward to seeing you all and hope for your support to make this a very special day once again.

Sincerely,

Anders Etzerodt
